"Take the road from Rome to Naples.

About halfway there, turn right. That's Supino." —Mezzabotte Coletta

My Father Came from Italy, a joyous and poignant memoir of an immigrant's homecoming, tells Maria Coletta McLean's intimate story of her disheartened father's return to his Italian village—sixty-four years after he left it for a new life in Canada. In the spirit of Under the Tuscan Sun and A Year in Provence, Maria buys a house in the village of Supino without seeing it—not as an escape to a rural idyll, but to reignite her father's memory of his youth.
